We gave the children of Chai Lifeline, who suffer from chronic or life-threatening illnesses, a Shabbat to remember. The Seduah Shelishit on Shabbat at OT at 5:40 will be open to the community. All residents are invited to share in the mitzvah of Hachnasat Orchim, and to enliven the weekend with joy and song.

Last year many people asked to be notified of the Shabbaton in advance of the date, and many asked if they could volunteer this year. There will be "buddy" opportunities for high school boys, and other opportunities throughout the weekend for adults, teens, and children to be involved, either through sponsorships, help driving kids to/from their host families, catering assistance, or help at the Saturday night event.

If you would like to volunteer, please e-mail your name and, if you are under 18, your age, to Alan Borck at borck99@gmail.com.
