OUTDOOR MINYANIM

For the past year, Congregation Ohr Torah has hosted an outdoor Minyan. Even after the vaccine became available and the incidence of Covid diminished, we maintained an outdoor Minyan to accommodate those who preferred to not enter the shul.

With the current precipitous drop in Covid cases, we feel it is now an appropriate time to ask everyone to please rejoin any of the various Minyanim in our Bais Knesses, which is specifically sanctified for Tefilah. This Shabbos, Parashas Korach, will be the last day that the outdoor Minyan will convene.

The longevity of the outdoor Minyan in rain and shine, hot and cold and everything in-between, is a testament to the tenacity and commitment of our members to daven with a minyan, even in difficult times. We thank all of those who organized, Leined, Davened and attended, and made this Minyan available for everyone who benefitted from this service.

Rabbi Yaakov Luban
Rabbi Sarel Malitzky
